

Registration Requirements

Riders must be registered to use Claremont Dial-a-Ride and must provide their name, address, year of birth and phone number to register. Riders may register in person, by phone or mail. To register in person, go to the Alexander Hughes Center, 1700 Danbury Rd, Claremont, CA. The Center is open Mon – Fri, from 10 am to 7 pm. To register by phone or to request a registration form, call Community Senior Services at 909-621-9900 from 9 am to 4 pm Mon – Fri. Those registering by mail should mail the completed form to Community Senior Services, 141 South Spring Street, Claremont, CA 91711. Riders who complete registration will be mailed an ID card with a unique identification number.

Riders under the age of 18 need a parent or guardian to sign the registration form giving the City of Claremont and Pomona Valley Transportation Authority permission to obtain the rider's personal information.

Get About riders previously registered are automatically registered for Claremont Dial-a-Ride.
